Consent

Sometimes we need your consent to use your personal information.

With direct marketing for example, we need your consent to make you aware of services which may be of interest to you.

We may do this by phone, post, email, text or through other digital media.

It is our policy to keep, in as far as is possible, a documented record of this consent.

Often, at the end of a course or piece of work for you, we contact you to give and get feedback.

We will generally provide options at this point in relation to how you might provide consent or otherwise for us to contact you with updates, marketing material and other promotions.

Breach Reporting

The Privacy Officer will conduct regular inspections and maintain a systematic audit schedule to monitor compliance and will actively record and report any Breaches in relation to Data Protection.

Any employee, client or 3rd party can alert the Privacy Officer to the breach, who will update the Breach Log before identifying the breach type and evaluate any risk associated with the breach.

Where there is a possibility of risk, and where the personal data breached is neither Encrypted or Anonymised, the Privacy Officer will report the breach to the DPC, and depending on the severity/urgency of the risk – may also notify the data subject. This will be done as soon as possible – and within the required 72 hour limit.

Staff Awareness & Training

Training sessions have been completed with all staff in relation to GDPR

All future induction sessions will include a specific session on data protection.
